9 United States of America,
10 Plaintiff,

11 v.

12 Christian Francis Manganaro,
13 Defendant.
14

No. CR-11-01892-001-PHX-GMS
ORDER

15
16 Pending before the Court is Defendant Manganaro's Request for Clarification
17 (Doc. 97). The Motion is granted and the clarification is provided below.

18 All Defendants are expected to fulfill their full term of supervised release without 19 violation. Reductions in such terms are "rarely granted." The Court understands Mr.
20 Manganaro may feel he has made sufficient strides to merit such a reduction and 21 understands why he would want such relief. Nevertheless, the nature of his underlying 22 offense, his past violations of his supervised release conditions, and his present attitude
23 towards supervision as set forth in pages 5-8 of the Government's Response to his motion,
24 indicate to the Court that no reduction is presently merited. The Court did read Mr.
25 Manganaro's Reply to the Government's Response in which he downplays the concerns
26 set forth in pages 5-8 and suggests that they were overstated, have been resolved, or Mr.
27 Manganaro has apologized to the probation officer for his inappropriate attitude and 28 behaviors. But, Mr. Manganaro's Reply did not come close to meeting the concerns set

1 forth in the Government's Response sufficient to establish that Mr. Manganaro does have 2 an appropriate attitude towards supervision, or appropriately treats his probation officer.
3 The Court further declines to outline for Mr. Manganaro what steps he would have to 4 achieve to be awarded the "rarely granted" relief of early termination. But, until his present
5 attitude about the requirements of probation and towards his probation officer improves,
6 the Court will not consider a request for early termination.
